In the current controversy over civil rights legislation, affirmative action, job discrimination, and quotas, one aspect of the whole matter is overlooked.

Administration of personnel in any situation without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin, however well-intentioned, is humanly impossible unless it is done without reference to race, creed, color, or national origin.

Is anybody ready to eliminate the race, creed, color and national origin lines from any personnel form?

You cannot have it both ways.

Very truly yours,

D. J. Henderson
